Chapter 388: The Eternal Watch

A Moment of Reflection

In the vast expanse of the True Absolute One Domain Realm, within the center of all that was and ever would be, Sung Jin-Woo sat upon his throne, his 60 million wings folded behind him in perfect symmetry. The sprawling reality of his domain lay before him, endless and infinite, yet it was all within his reach. Here, in this moment of stillness, even the passage of time felt suspended, as if the very fabric of existence awaited his command.

He closed his eyes, sensing the pulses of energy from across the multiverse. His mind touched every universe, each one alive with its own unique rhythm, its own challenges and triumphs. The Divine Triad—he, Ashborn, and Sung Su-Ho—had ascended to unimaginable heights. Their powers were beyond comprehension, and their realms were filled with unmeasurable potential. Yet, even now, Sung Jin-Woo felt a subtle unease.

Despite his godly stature, he was not alone in this vast, interconnected reality. There were forces at work, entities that existed beyond his comprehension, whose influence could reach even the highest of realms. While these entities remained hidden in the outer multiverse, their presence was undeniable.

A New Threat on the Horizon

In the farthest reaches of the outer multiverse, beyond even the most remote of universes, something stirred. The Divine Triad’s influence was still unchallenged, but the laws of the Absolute Realm were being tested.

The Celestial Forces, with their boundless power, had maintained stability, but now there were rifts forming—strange anomalies that no being in the multiverse could predict. The True Realms remained untouched, yet the Heavenly Realm Universe was slowly shifting in ways that had not been foreseen.

A new force was emerging, one that existed beyond the scope of traditional divine entities. This force seemed to defy the natural order, existing both within and outside the boundaries of the multiverse at once.

Sung Jin-Woo could feel this disturbance, subtle at first, but growing stronger with each passing moment. His vision pierced through the fabric of reality, seeking the source of this new threat.

The Watchers Beyond Time

The Divine Triad had always been the highest power within the Heavenly Realm Universe, but in the farthest corners of the multiverse, there were whispers of other beings, entities of unimaginable power that transcended time, space, and even the realms of gods. These beings were known as the Watchers Beyond Time, ancient entities that existed before the creation of the multiverse itself.

The Watchers' very existence was a mystery—few knew of their true nature, but legends spoke of their boundless influence. Some said they were the creators of all realms, while others believed they were the guardians of the multiverse's primal essence, holding the balance of reality in their hands.

These beings were not confined by time or space as Sung Jin-Woo and the Divine Triad were. They existed in a state of eternal equilibrium, outside the comprehension of even the greatest gods.

Now, their gaze turned toward the Heavenly Realm Universe, for the balance was being disturbed.

The Divine Triad's Response

Sung Jin-Woo rose from his throne, the weight of his presence expanding across the True Absolute One Domain Realm. His mind raced as he gathered the essence of the multiverse, feeling the subtle threads that connected all realms. The Third World Tree, still glowing brightly at the center of his domain, began to pulse in response to the growing disturbance.

Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho appeared beside him, each of them glowing with their godly radiance. The True Celestial Realm and the True Dragon God Realm had also sensed the growing unease, and their rulers had been summoned.

"This disturbance…" Sung Jin-Woo's voice resonated across the realm, powerful yet calm. "It is unlike anything we've faced before. The fabric of reality itself is beginning to unravel."

Ashborn's form flickered, the light of his being shifting with the energy of his thoughts. "These rifts… they're not like the ones we've encountered in the past. They're connected to something far older, far more primal."

Sung Su-Ho's gaze shifted toward the multiverse, his black flames swirling with intensity. "Who dares to challenge the balance of the multiverse? We will find them."

The Gathering of the Divine Armies

To confront this new threat, the Divine Triad called upon their most powerful forces. Gabriel, Azrael, and Michael, along with their respective armies of archangels, dark archangels, and battle angels, were summoned to the True Absolute One Domain Realm. They would form the vanguard in the coming battle, ready to protect the multiverse from whatever force sought to destroy it.

At the same time, Sung Jin-Woo sent his clones—those reflections of his power, each wielding a fraction of his strength but capable of immense feats—across the multiverse to gather information. They would uncover the source of the disturbance and prepare for the impending confrontation.

In the realms of Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho, the celestial and dragon armies were mobilized. The Arch-celestials and Arch-dragons, powerful beings forged from light and flame, took their positions, prepared to face whatever dark forces emerged.

The Threat Approaches

As the Divine Triad and their armies prepared for the coming battle, the disturbance in the multiverse grew stronger. The Watchers Beyond Time stirred, their influence spreading across the borders of reality. The threads of fate were being altered, and the multiverse itself seemed to tremble in response.

A new force was emerging, one that threatened not just the Heavenly Realm Universe but all of existence. As the Divine Triad stood united in their realms, their wings folded but their hearts resolute, they knew one thing for certain: no matter the threat, they would never allow the multiverse to fall into chaos.

The battle to preserve existence itself was about to begin.

To Be Continued...